

State of Florida,
St. Johns County.

On this day personally appeared before me, Joseph Leonardy, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says: I am a resident of St. Augustine, St. Johns County, Florida, being born in said City, County and State and am now 67 years old; was well acquainted with Celestial J. Leonardy he was my younger brother, he died some three or four years ago and left Flora Leonardy, his widow who is now living, my brother Celestial J. Leonardy enlisted in the St. Augustine Blues ^{Company, B. 3rd Florida Infantry} at the beginning of the war in 1861 and served for one year, when he returned home. I did not return home until the close of the war and found my brother at home suffering from a wound which he had received during said war, and from which wound he suffered from up until the time of his death; such wound was such that prevented him from performing military duties, and my said brother told me after I returned from the war and found him at that time, that he wanted to re-enlist and would have re-enlisted if he could have performed military duties.

Joseph Leonardy

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 26th day of March A. D., 1910.

W. Mac Williams

Notary Public State of Florida at Large

